

March 1, 2006

CHARLOTTESVILLE– Robert Redd’s fervor for adventure and unquenchable wanderlust made him a well respected traveler with a mind readily open to the influences of new cultures. Appropriately, the list of stores carrying apparel from Robert Redd, LLC has achieved significant geographic range in keeping with the zeal of the company’s original inspiration.

Now available in at least eight states, Robert Redd, LLC continues to expand with alacrity, striving to continually improve its product availability to its beloved customers. These new stores carrying the company’s apparel were selected by REDD for their similar commitment to flawless quality and their dedication to customer service.

Robert Redd, LLC excels in creating, designing, and producing the most unique consumer products. Notably, the initial Redd® products were fine gentleman’s knits. The products are comprised of the finest materials, matched with unique colors and are intelligently conceived so that both the products and brand appeal to the gentleman or lady with the highest personal regard for his or her wardrobe.

The legend of Robert Redd™, tracing back to before the turn of the century, was founded on a love of both adventure and of the finer things in life. Robert Redd, LLC continues to evolve holding true to the most defining characteristics of its original inspiration, especially those derived from his family’s motto, “Extend Love, ‘Tis what you truly are”. Many more colorful adventures exist and once properly researched, will be reported faithfully by Robert Redd, LLC.

For more information, send an email to info@robertredd.com, or call 434-979-9191.